Maxim Lighting 50 Year Anniversary

By Erin Robinson

Dallas Market Center
January 8, 2020

The Dallas Market Center lit up in celebration of Maxim Lighting's 50th anniversary. Guests gathered in 70s style, in plenty of sequins and tie dye. The party took guests back to the roots of Maxim Lighting when it first started creating elevated pieces 50 years ago. The styles may change, but Maxim will always be the leader in cutting-edge lighting trends. Guests celebrated by dancing and rollerblading the night away!
